Soliciting Applications for the Position of

Associate Attorney

Established civil and criminal trial practice firm in Portland is accepting applications for the position of Associate Attorney. Admission or pending admission to the Maine Bar required. This position requires excellent oral advocacy, legal research and writing skills, an appreciation of teamwork, and a strong interest in practicing law as a trial attorney. Because our Office is often called upon to undertake important, difficult and high profile civil and criminal cases for both plaintiffs and defendants in the state and federal courts, this position offers the opportunity for an exciting and rewarding career in the law. Preference to candidates with courtroom experience, but applications from recent law school graduates and those with experience as judicial clerks will also be welcomed. Applications consisting of cover letter, resume and recent writing sample may be sent in confidence to:
